More Mobility, Stronger Connections: Using Transactional Data Specifications
Part 2

May 6, 2021
Webinar Agenda

Welcome & Logistics
- Heather Edmonds - Program Associate, National Aging & Disability Transportation Center at n4a

NADTC Overview
- Melissa Gray - Senior Program Manager, National Aging & Disability Transportation Center at n4a

TDS Webinar 1 Overview
- Jana Lynott - Senior Strategic Policy Advisor, AARP Public Policy Institute

Panel Discussion
- Kevin Chambers, Founder and Principal, Full Path Transit Technology
- Melissa Walton, Business Manager, Inner Court Family Center
- Linda Mickle, Transportation Program Manager, Lake County Senior Center Association
- Andrea Wishart, Executive Director, Lake County Senior Center Association
Instructions for Zoom Meeting Participation

• All participants are muted. Please stay muted unless you are speaking.
• The session is being recorded and will be sent via email along with slides and evaluation. All materials will be put on the NADTC website.
• Closed captioning is available. You can turn captioning on/off by clicking on the cc button.
• Questions should be entered into the Q&A box.
• Please do not submit questions in the chat, but chat is open and can be used for general comments or technical assistance.
MAJOR OBJECTIVES:

• Person-centered technical assistance and information
• Training
• Communication and Outreach
• Coordination and partnership
• Investment in community solutions

MISSION: To promote the availability of accessible transportation options that serve the needs of Older Adults, People with Disabilities, Caregivers and Communities.

Photo Credit: Metrolina Association for the Blind, Charlotte, NC
RideSheet: Rural Transportation Benefits from New Coordination Technology

Panel Discussion
Lake County Geography
Additional Resources

• AARP/NADTC publication: More Mobility, Stronger Connections: It’s Time to Modernize Demand-Responsive Transportation Using the Transactional Data Specification
• AARP publication: Modernizing Demand-Responsive Transportation for the Age of New Mobility
• AARP: RideSheet: Rural Transportation Benefits from New Coordination Technology
• AARP: Future of Transportation
• TCRP Research Report 210: Development of Transactional Data Specification for Demand Responsive Transportation